

DISCIPLINE POLICY (including Rewards and Sanctions)

Behaviour and attitude to learning of St George's students, according to OFSTED inspection "is outstanding". This is in part because we have very clear expectations of student conduct, and students are clear on what action to expect if they break those expectations. We reward and encourage those who do as we expect. This policy gives detailed form to the "Governors Statement of Principles on Discipline" and defines the powers of staff to respond to misconduct when it does occur.

DEFINITION OF SCHOOL JURISDICTION

This policy applies on school premises and during school hours, whilst students are in residence in the Boarding Houses, on visits and trips, at school events or other occasions related to the school, and on any occasions when the pupils are the responsibility of the staff.

The policy applies when students are off site because study leave or work experience arrangements are in place. When pupils are travelling to and from school they are considered to be representing the school and therefore the school rules apply. This includes sixth form students and boarders, who remain subject to school jurisdiction even if off site, for example on lunchtime exeat, or when allowed off site if not being taught or in transit to another institution. The school reserves the right to take interest in and impose sanctions for any misconduct by any student at any time, beyond the bounds of the school day, week, and term, where such misconduct prejudices the good order and welfare of the school or its students. In addition to this policy, further details are given in school polices on anti-bullying, equal opportunities, and management of drugs related incidents.

The school discipline policy applies to students of other institutions when they are on or near the site as part of consortium teaching arrangements.

While this policy details an approximate level of response to misconduct, staff are expected to exercise judgement according to the individual circumstance of the case. Special or individual mitigating circumstances might lead to a lower punishment to be set. Repeat offending or other aggravating circumstances may lead to the listed punishment being increased.

1. TRUANCY

- Parents are asked to ring the school office in the morning of the first day of any absence, and to follow this up with a letter confirming the reason when the pupil returns to school.
- Pupils caught avoiding lessons or playing truant should be put on HOH (Head of House) attendance report or HOH report and issued with a Friday detention.

Pupils who repeatedly fail to respond to tutors direction to bring in a letter to give reasons for absence can expect to face a sanction.

2. PERSISTENT LATENESS

- If a pupil is late three times for registration or to lessons, without a valid excuse during one half term, then a HOH late detention should be issued.
- If this recurs then a HOH attendance report for one week will be issued. This may also be issued if a pupil is persistently late to lessons.
- Detention before school, beginning at 0800, may be used with persistent offenders as may Friday detention and other more serious actions.

3. UNIFORM

- Pupils wearing inappropriate clothing should be sent home via the HOH to change, unless they have a signed letter from home explaining the exceptional circumstances.
- Where non-uniform items (coats, scarves, etc) are worn indoors, they may be confiscated.
- Uniform must be properly worn at all times on the way to and from school and at any event when representing the school. Ties must be done up properly with four stripes of the house colour completely visible and with shirts tucked in. Students who fail to meet expectations can expect detention.
- It is essential that students attending public examinations attend properly dressed in full uniform. A student who repeatedly failed to wear required uniform would not be admitted to the examination.

4. JEWELLERY/MAKE-UP

- Jewellery will be confiscated and passed on to the HOH in a named envelope, if worn by pupils not in the sixth form.
- Pupils in Years 7 to 11 wearing make-up will be sent to the toilets immediately to wash it off, or to House Offices or the Main Office which retain stocks of make-up remover.
- Students who repeatedly fail to meet expectations can expect detention.

5. INAPPROPRIATE HAIRCUTS

Hair must be appropriate for a smart office environment and must not be extreme in style or length. We recommend it should not be cut shorter than a “number two” and must not be shave-patterned. This also applies to shaved eyebrows. Facial hair is not permitted in Years 7 to 11. Hair must be a natural colour and natural appearance. Only plain, functional and safe hair accessories are allowed: senior staff can give guidance. If a breach of this code cannot be resolved to satisfaction of staff, it will result in two days internal removal of the student (including break, lunchtimes and after school until 4.00pm). Immediate responses to changes in hair fashions may require staff to apply their judgements to ensure appearances are acceptable and reasonable.

6. CONSUMING FOODSTUFFS OUTSIDE OF APPROVED AREAS

The only areas where students can eat and drink (other than water and fruit) are the Dining Room, Grant Quad, Monk Corridor, and 6th form Common Room. Students found in breach of this rule will have the item confiscated and discarded – a low level sanction such as litter pick up or side or short detention will be set.

7. NOT BEING EQUIPPED FOR LEARNING

- Students are required to have the correct books and equipment for each lesson and activity each day. Students without vital materials may be set a side or detention.
- The Prep Book is a vital learning tool and students are expected to have it with them every day. Students who fail to do so will face a side or detention. Students in Years 7 to 11 are expected to show their Prep Book to parents each week for signature. Students who repeatedly fail to do so will be set a side or detention.

8. SMOKING TOBACCO

No student may smoke tobacco or be in possession of smoking materials while under the jurisdiction of the school, as detailed above.

- First offence – one HOH detention and a letter sent home to parents.
- Second offence – a Friday detention and a letter home to parents.
- Third offence – parents invited into school to discuss the issue. Persistent offenders may face a fixed-term exclusion.

9. BAD LANGUAGE

Any pupil caught swearing should be reprimanded by the member of staff at the time. Usually one side may suffice. Persistent offenders will be more severely punished.

10. DAMAGE TO PROPERTY

- The teacher at the scene should assess if the act was accidental or deliberate. Reckless or deliberate damage should be punished.
- Damage should be dealt with by subject teacher/head of department in charge of that teaching area. Pupils should be billed for any subsequent costs incurred for replacement or repair via the Head of Department or Site Manager.
- The Tutor and HOH should deal with pupils caught vandalising property around the school. Pupils will be billed for any subsequent costs incurred for repair via the Site Manager or HOH for personal property.
- Punishment will range from detention to exclusion for aggravated offences.

11. GOING OUT OF BOUNDS

- Pupils are expected to be in designated areas during break and lunchtimes, and before and after school. They are not allowed on site out of hours, except for an organised and supervised activity or having signed in to the boarding houses. Clear guides to the exact areas forbidden are displayed around the school, but such areas will include:
 1. All laboratories and specialist rooms

2. Cycle shed, except for the leaving and collection of cycles
 3. The vicinity of motor vehicles
 4. The area surrounding Musicale
 5. The games pavilion and the area around it (and some other parts of the field, depending on the season and weather)
 6. The immediate boundaries of the school fields where they adjoin residential property
 7. The kitchens, staff offices and facilities, the Hall Stage
 8. All roof spaces, windows, and fire escapes
 9. Sixth form students, other than Head Boy and Girl, may not park cars on the premises during school hours
 10. Any area where building work is taking place.
- Punishment set will range from detention to exclusion for aggravated offences

12. MISUSE OF COMPUTER EQUIPMENT

The school has a clear policy guiding the appropriate use of school computers and loaned lap tops. Misconduct in this area, such as "hacking" or improper use of the internet, can result in a range of sanctions from simple loss of privileges to exclusion from school, which may be used in aggravated cases where the conduct was repeated or involved real or potential harm.

13. BRINGING THE SCHOOL INTO DISREPUTE

Students are expected to be good ambassadors for the school at all times. Misconduct in this area can result in a range of sanctions from simple loss of privileges to exclusion from school, which may be used in aggravated cases where the conduct was repeated or involved real or potential harm.

The following will always be considered to be major offences:

14. OFFENSIVE CONDUCT TO OTHER STUDENTS. THIS INCLUDES BULLYING (PHYSICAL OR VERBAL, INCLUDING RACIAL, CULTURAL, GENDER, DISABILITY)

- Any bullying or harassment will not be tolerated and is always treated seriously.
- As detailed in the school bullying policy, unacceptable behaviours include:

Physical threats and verbal intimidation
Repeated and deliberate teasing by an individual or group
Physical assault intended to hurt and frighten
Pushing, tripping, spitting at any individual
Abuse of personal property intended to cause distress
Writing, whispering and spreading rumours about a person to cause hurt
Intentional exclusion or isolation of an individual - silent treatment
Insults directed at a person or family on the grounds of race, religion, culture, Special Educational Need, disabilities, health conditions, gender, sexual orientation, home circumstance, belief, dress or appearance [see Equal Opportunities Policy]

- Where student conduct is reckless and dangerous, placing others at risk, serious sanction may be set even where the student's intent is not malicious.

- Use of electronic means or the internet to harass or hurt others, such as by e-mail, website, or text message, comes within the remit of this policy and students should expect this to lead to punishment. In accordance with the jurisdiction of the Head, misconduct outside school hours can still lead to school action. Because of the intrusive nature of this kind of misconduct, “cyberbullying” will tend to be viewed as serious misconduct meriting a substantial consequence.
- All incidents are to be dealt with as described in the school’s anti-bullying policy. Pupils will be interviewed, and a course of action agreed upon. Parents will be informed. The situation will be monitored and persistent bullying of any kind or aggravated incidents may result in a Friday detention or a fixed period of exclusion, or permanent exclusion.

15. OFFENSIVE CONDUCT TO MEMBERS OF STAFF

- Abusive language/rudeness to or defiance of a member of staff is very unusual and very serious. A Deputy or member of the Leadership Group should be informed immediately and they will deal with situation by giving a Friday detention, internal exclusion, or fixed term exclusion. Tutor or HOH should be informed using the pupil information record sheet. Students defying a member of staff, or using foul language to a member of staff, can expect to face serious sanctions up to and including exclusion from school.
- Harassment of a member of staff or their property or family of any sort, including beyond the bounds of the school day or school term, would be a serious offence and would result in a Friday detention or a fixed period of exclusion, or permanent exclusion. Threatening or aggressive conduct, or damaging conduct, or repeated misconduct of this sort, would be aggravating factors which would make more likely application of exclusion which may be permanent. If a student is found to have wilfully made a malicious allegation against a member of staff, this would also be a very serious offence likely to lead to an exclusion which could be permanent.
- Violent conduct towards staff is unheard of at St George's. Any such instance would be likely to be punishable by permanent exclusion from school.

16. OFFENSIVE CONDUCT TO OTHER MEMBERS OF THE COMMUNITY

- Such misconduct, either in word or deed, is unusual and always serious. A Deputy or member of the Leadership Group should be informed immediately and they will deal with situation by giving a Friday detention, internal removal, or fixed term exclusion.
- Misconduct on school transport is always a matter of grave concern to the school, which would support school transport authorities in any decision to ban a student from school transport where this is appropriate.

17. DELIBERATE CLASSROOM DISRUPTION

This should be punished by a subject teacher detention, but in persistent cases the pupil should be issued with a Friday detention. This must be issued via the HOH. Further disruption may result in removal from that subject lesson. If an individual student is to be removed from more than one set of subject lessons, a programme of supervised study must be organised and the pupil will be then sent to the appropriate member of staff ‘on call’ for those periods in the day or week. This is a serious measure, which modifies curriculum entitlement to a particular student, and parents must be informed before such action is taken.

18. MALICIOUS DISCHARGE OF A FIRE ALARM OR FIRE EXTINGUISHING EQUIPMENT, MAKING A HOAX 999 CALL

This is highly dangerous and places others at risk of harm. This will be dealt with by a Deputy or member of the Leadership Group: the usual sanction will be a fixed term exclusion.

19. THEFT

- All cases involving theft (including taking property without permission) should be investigated by HOH or a Deputy. Pupils caught stealing should return or replace the property. Exclusion is the normal sanction for theft, although determination of sanction would depend on factors including the degree to which the offence was premeditated and the value of the item taken. The police may be informed.
- To avoid difficulties, we insist that no article may be bought or sold, nor should any collection of money take place within the school, without permission of a senior member of staff.

20. ALCOHOL AND DRUG RELATED OFFENCES

All incidents suspected to involve alcohol, drugs or substance abuse should be dealt with as described in the school Policy for Managing Drug Incidents Involving Students. Where the substance is not illegal but thought to be a danger to the individual or to others, confiscation will be followed by a detention or fixed term exclusion. In cases where illegal substances are involved, the police may need to be informed and the proper procedures for fixed term exclusion or permanent exclusion will be followed. Consuming an illegal substance while under school jurisdiction, or purchasing such a substance, or being under the influence of such a substance, are all serious offences. Any involvement in supply of illegal substances is exceptionally serious and may lead to permanent exclusion. This would not necessarily be restricted to the sale of drugs to others. Sharing an illegal substance, or making an arrangement to sell a substance off the school premises, or intent to supply, are also both illegal and of utmost seriousness, and may lead to permanent exclusion.

21. POSSESSION OR USE OF AN OFFENSIVE WEAPON

- An offensive weapon is anything used as a weapon or to intimidate others. This includes replica items.
- The weapon will be confiscated and parents will be invited to collect it or the weapon will be disposed of. The pupil will be given a Friday detention or exclusion from school as appropriate. This will depend on the degree to which the item was used to cause alarm or harm to others; the degree to which the student carrying such a weapon intended to use it to cause harm or alarm to others; and the potential for the item to cause harm and alarm to others. Where a student is using a sharp object to harm themselves special procedures are followed.
- Laser light pens are potentially highly dangerous, even if students have no intent to use them in an offensive way. Possession by students or use on school premises is very serious and will lead to sanction.

22. POSSESSION OF OTHER OFFENSIVE ITEMS

- Phones with a video or photo taking capability can easily be misused in a school setting. Phones will always be confiscated if seen in use on school premises during the school day by students in Years 7-11. Such confiscation can be for up to a week, and students can be required to get a parent to come to school to recover the item; parental intervention will not, however, lead to an item being returned early. Further action will be taken if the item is being used in a way detrimental to good order, or where records indicate that a student is repeatedly getting their phone confiscated and is still ignoring our rule.
- Students should not bring onto the school site electronic equipment such as i-pods, MP3 players, digital cameras. They will always be confiscated for a lengthy period if seen in use by a student on school premises, unless a member of staff has explicitly endorsed that the student bring in the item and use it. Sixth form students may use such items in defined areas of the school. Further sanction will be taken if the item is being used in a way detrimental to good order. Students who choose to ignore the strong direction not to bring such items into school must understand that staff are not expected to spend time investigating and assisting should they the item be lost.
- Possession of pornography, racist or other inflammatory literature or ephemera, is forbidden and will be confiscated and the incident dealt with by means of sanction ranging from detention to exclusion depending on the degree to which the misconduct would cause real or potential harm. Exclusion would also be used in aggravated cases or where the conduct was repeated.

23. OBSTRUCTION OF JUSTICE

If serious misconduct has occurred, students are expected to be helpful to staff investigating. Students who wilfully conceal important information will face punishment up to Friday detention. The level of co-operation offered by a student facing any investigation will be taken into account in determining the severity of sanctions imposed. School staff reserve the right to confiscate phones and will ask the student's permission to access the phone's memory where they believe that to do so will help an investigation into serious misconduct. They would limit such a search to the issue in hand. Should a student withhold permission to follow a reasonable request, the student will be liable to punishment for obstruction of justice.

24. IMPROPER CONDUCT

Sexual activity between students is not appropriate in an educational environment. Where such activity involves coercion, harassment, assault, or duress it will be treated as an issue of utmost seriousness: this may involve police action, and sanctions up to and including exclusion from school.

However, even where contact between students is consenting, sanctions may be set where behaviour goes beyond what the school views as normal affectionate behaviour for that age.

25. PLAGIARISM AND USE OF UNFAIR MEANS

Any work submitted by a student for assessment must be the student's own work. This applies to both "coursework" and any examination situation. Students who submit work copied from elsewhere as their own, be it from a peer, text source, internet or wherever, should expect sanction. This would normally be a detention and requirement to repeat the work. In the case of work for public examination, the school will follow the actions required by examination boards. A student submitting plagiarised work for public examination should expect that the work will be refused and a period of fixed term exclusion from school invoked.

Students who assist a peer by knowingly allowing their work to be copied will face sanction: in the case of public examination coursework, this might extend up to fixed term exclusion from school.

REWARDS & SANCTIONS

High standards of work and behaviour are expected as stated in the school behaviour, anti-bullying, drug prevention and equal opportunities policies. This expectation is supported by a series of REWARDS AND SANCTIONS. Good work, manners and behaviour is rewarded with praise, as is effort in a particular area or piece of work. Sanctions are used sparingly when effort or behaviour falls below these expectations. Problems are initially discussed with pupils. Consistent under achievement or poor behaviour is dealt with in consultation with parents.

REWARDS

- Merit Marks - These are awarded for particular pieces of work or helpful behaviour. Students who are particularly successful in winning merit marks will qualify for Merit Certificates, which are awarded termly.
- House Colours - These are awarded at the end of the academic year to pupils who are particularly helpful within their House, contribute well to House competitions, or who act as positive role models to others.
- Sports, Music, and Drama Colours - These are awarded at the end of the season to those displaying a high standard in an individual sport or other activity.
- Attendance Awards – These are awarded as part of the County scheme for good or improved attendance or for good attendance in difficult circumstances.
- Subject and Special Prizes – These are awarded at Prize Giving. Recommendations for special prizes are nominated through the House system.
- Selection of Prefects and Sub-Prefects – The appointment of a prefect or head boy/girl is based on merit. Staff and pupils have a role in recommending students as head boy/girl.
- Prefect of the Term Award – This is awarded by the houses to the prefect seen to be fulfilling the role in the most conscientious way.
- Commendations – Exceptional effort, for a particular pupil, as indicated on the tutor card can result in a commendation by the Head of House or Head Teacher or Governor
- Postcards – sent home by houses and senior staff periodically to reward positive achievements and contributions to life of the school.

Several departments also offer their own small reward schemes.

SANCTIONS

- Sides - One or two sides of prose on special A4 paper are set for minor misdemeanours, omissions and breaches of the behaviour code. Sides are issued and recorded by Tutors within Houses.

- Confiscation – this will apply to items which are forbidden in school, contrary to uniform rules, items which are harmful to others, or which are being used in a way contrary to rules or in an inappropriate place or time. Low value items, such as foodstuffs being consumed in a corridor, would be confiscated and discarded. Other items will normally be kept for one week. This may be shortened in the case of mobile phones, which may be important to student safety. However, such discretion would not be shown where a phone had disrupted the good order of the school. The school reserves the right to require a parent to come into school for the item to be returned, or to pass the item to the police.
- Late Detentions – These are given by HOH at the request of the tutor for late registration on three or more occasions per half term.
- Detentions – These are set for more serious breaches of the behaviour code, persistent failure to hand in homework, or lack of effort in class. They are set and taken by individual members of staff or as arranged in Departments, by HODs or by HOHs, at break, lunch time or before or after school. The student is informed orally about why the detention is being given, and when it is to take place. In the case of detentions outside the bounds of the school day, the appropriate form is completed and given to the relevant Tutor who signs it and gives it to the student who is responsible for getting it signed by the HOH and a parent/guardian before the detention takes place. Parents are given 24 hours notice of after school detentions, but such notice will not be given if a detention is set for lunch or breaktimes. When staff might need to detain a child the same day, this could be done if parental agreement had been gained by telephone. If the pupil is absent, the detention will be held on the day he or she returns to school. Failure to comply with these arrangements will result in a further detention being issued. Further non-compliance will result in a special detention as described below. While detentions out of hours will normally be held after school, detention may be set before school, and this may be particularly used in the case of students who are repeatedly late for school.
- Community service - staff may waive the above sanctions in favour of offering the student the chance to make good their misconduct by performing work of benefit to the community: mounting displays, litter picking, covering books, and so on.
- Emergency removal – This may occur on rare occasions following uncontrolled physical or verbal abuse which causes serious disruption to the lesson and is not susceptible to the normal channels of control or classroom management. The pupil should be sent to the HOD or a message sent to the school office for the senior member of staff on call to remove the pupil from the lesson. Parents will be informed.

All teaching staff, including supply teachers, unqualified and student teachers, and boarding staff, are empowered by the Headmaster to reprimand children, impose sides, confiscation, detentions as listed above, community service, and emergency removal. Other adults working in the school, such as support staff and volunteer helpers, are empowered to reprimand children, impose sides, community service, confiscation, and emergency removal; they may also supervise students completing punishments set by teaching staff.

The punishments and responses detailed below are set by more senior staff as indicated:

- Reports - Poor effort or behaviour shown on the tutor card can result in a pupil being placed on Report by their HOH for one or more subject areas. Pupils can also be put on Report outside the regular report period at the request of a subject teacher and HOD (Head of Department). These may continue until they are completed satisfactorily. Failure to respond to HOH Reports will result in a Head Teacher's Report. Attendance Reports are also given by HOH to pupils missing lessons, or other commitments, and can cover lesson time and/or free time. Students can be put on "Uniform Report" to check it is being properly worn. A red card indicates that the student has been placed on report by the school. A green card indicates that the student has volunteered to go on report as a motivational aid. A Recess report card may be issued, which requires a student to get a staff signature at periodic times during break or lunch.
- Friday Detention 15.00 to 16.30pm – These are given for failure to attend two consecutive detentions as above, or serious or repeated misconduct, or causing serious and persistent disruption to the learning of others, and is taken by HOHs, senior HODs, or Leadership Group. A letter is sent directly to parents by a senior member of staff. Failure to attend such a special detention, or being in receipt of repeated Friday detentions is likely to result in fixed term exclusion from school. In the case of serious misconduct, or to ensure a sanction can be completed before school breaks, students can be required to attend for detention on Inset Days, and on term time Saturdays or Sundays.
- Internal removal from a particular subject lesson for a maximum period of two weeks. This will be for continued disruption of the learning of others and will be in consultation with Tutor, HOD and HOH. Parents will be informed. For other serious misdemeanours, pupils may also be excluded from free time, functions or trips. Parents will be informed.
- Withdrawal of privilege. As an alternative to other sanctions, senior staff may require that students attend school on days when they would otherwise not be required in school. This might include clear-up day, and end of terms where students normally leave early, and so on. Students may also be removed from participation in educational visits. 6th form students can lose privileges such as the freedom to leave the site at lunchtime and in free periods, and the freedom to choose their own use of non-teaching periods.
- Internal removal from all lessons for up to 3 days including supervision during break and lunch time co-ordinated by the Deputies will take place should the above sanctions not have the desired effect. This sanction may be used for serious one-off misconduct which is not quite of a level which would merit fixed term exclusion from school.
- Fixed period of exclusion from the school – For continued disruption as above and exceptional breaches of the school rules. The Deputies may carry out this procedure if explicitly delegated this responsibility in the absence of the Headmaster. A period of fixed term exclusion at lunchtimes only may need to be used for serious disruption of the site outside class time. A pastoral support programme will be implemented if appropriate.

- Permanent exclusion from the school – This procedure is carried out by the Headmaster and must be endorsed by the appropriate Governors’ panel, in accordance with DfES guidance, for repeated serious misconduct or possibly for one-off misconduct of exceptional seriousness.

Where a student fails to respond to sanction and continues to repeat misconduct, the school will increase the severity of sanctions set to punish the repeated misbehaviour.

Educational Visits:

Misconduct on educational visits may lead to punishment once the student has returned to school, ranging up to permanent exclusion for a very serious offence. However, the need for immediate action during the visit, especially if it is residential or overseas, means that other immediate responses may need to be taken. These might include on-site community service, restrictions to the student’s activities and privileges, confiscation of illicit items. A student might be returned to school early, or a parent might be required to come to collect them.

Suspension of Punishment

In certain circumstances, a senior member of staff may issue but choose to “suspend” the execution of a punishment for a period in order to offer a student the chance to amend their conduct. A period is defined during which the punishment can be invoked: and the punishment is executed if staff believe the student has failed to change their behaviour as required.

Ancillary powers of staff

Consistent with the provisions of the Education and Inspections Act (2006) it may be necessary for staff in exceptional circumstances to search students for items such as stolen items, substances of abuse, or items which could be harmful to others.

In exceptional circumstances it may be necessary for staff to physically restrain a student. St George’s school staff will look to act in a manner consistent with DCSF guidance on the use of force to control and restrain pupils. Staff are not expected to put themselves at risk, and may reserve the right to decline to physically restrain a student. However, the Education and Inspections Act specifies that staff can use reasonable force to restrain a student where this is necessary such as to prevent the student harming themselves or others, prevent damage to property, or prevent serious disruption to the good order of the school’s operations. This power is delegated by the Headmaster to all teaching and support staff, including supply and student teachers, lunchtime supervisors, and adult volunteers assisting on educational activities.

Where circumstances have forced a member of staff or other designated adult to use such physical restraint, a senior member of staff should be informed immediately and a record made and passed to the Deputy Head who leads on attendance and behaviour.

Referral for Police Action

In the case of serious offences, senior staff will make a decision as to whether the matter is to be reported for additional police action.

MONITORING FOR EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

It is important that the school's system of sanctions and rewards operates fairly and does not discriminate to disadvantage any racial group, gender, student with disability, or vulnerable student. Heads of House are at the centre of the process of monitoring each child's progress through the school, and are mandated to monitor its operation, and to investigate where students from any group appear to be disproportionately and unfairly likely to receive particular sanctions or rewards. The Head of House concerned would have to satisfy themselves that there was due cause for any such pattern, and that no reasonable steps had been missed which could resolve it. Such a finding would be taken into consideration in the way the discipline policy is viewed at points of future review.

With regard to the Race Relations Amendment Act (2000), the Deputy Head responsible for the discipline policy is responsible for reviewing the operation of more serious sanction, such as exclusion, to determine whether these sanctions have a disproportionate impact on any ethnic minority, and whether there was due cause for any such pattern.

The Governors receive a report annually from the school leadership team to be confident that the policy is not bearing unfairly on any particular segment of the student body.

COMPLAINTS AND QUERIES

Where a parent or student wishes to have further clarification as to the reasons why a punishment was set, or to query that punishment, the member of staff concerned should be approached in the first instance. If this does not resolve the matter, the Head of Department or House can be approached. As a last resort, matters can be dealt with by the Headmaster, or through the school's formal complaints procedure.
